

Rural Fire Service Queensland Week

27 July - 2 August 2025

Rural Fire Service Queensland Week is a statewide celebration recognising the dedication and commitment of Rural Fire Service volunteers who give their time to help keep Queensland communities safe through a range of activities, including community education, fighting fires, hazard mitigation, operational support, and managing the Permit to Light Fire system.